A Step Further

There we were, starting another new year, a year showing promise for excitement and enjoyment. Hopes were held high along with index fingers. "Spalding's #!" It always has been, it always will be: 'God made the Irish #1.'

Determination and persistence were evident throughout the year in almost everything. Spalding chose to be involved. We were determined to do well in sports as well as extracurricular activities. Students were even determined when they were having fun.

A Step Further

This year proved to be another step, just One Step Further in our lives. It was one more year of high school behind us. For Seniors, it was high school behind us, so we took hold and grabbed what we could before it slipped through our fingers. We vowed to have our wildest fun, our best grades, our greatest achievements. In many ways, these were fulfilled.

A Step Further

This year was One Step Further in all of our lives. Freshmen were initiated to high school. Sophomores suffered through Driver's Education which the Juniors looked back on and laughed at as they drove. Seniors were on top of their small isolated world for what actually was nine months but seemed more like a few short moments.

Each student at AOL/SI began the fall semester of 1981 with many hopes held up for magical 1982.

Carnival Capers

Popcorn, snow cones and cotton candy. All of these and more forms of refreshment were enjoyed by AOL/SI students at the fall carnival. This year's carnival was held in the fall, at the suggestion of Mrs. Emma Taylor, in hopes of avoiding the rain experienced on the carnival of the preceding year. The senior class board worked in the summer in order to insure the success of the carnival. Their hard work and preparation was evident. Entertainment was provided in several forms. A hypnotist performed mind-boggling spectacles with students and the movie The Champ was available for viewing. All-in-all, September 4 proved to be an enjoyable day.

1981 yearbooks were a great part of the carnival.

Ring Day 1981: A Time To Reflect

On Wednesday, September 23, 1981, the Junior class received their class rings under the theme of friendship. In an elaborate celebration, Fr. Beebe led the students in thanksgiving for the special moments in high school and how the class ring symbolizes these moments. After the Mass, a lunch was served at the Pinkney Feed Co., followed by dancing at the Second Chance. The day was a success and a good time was had by all.

Here's to the Junior Class of 1981!

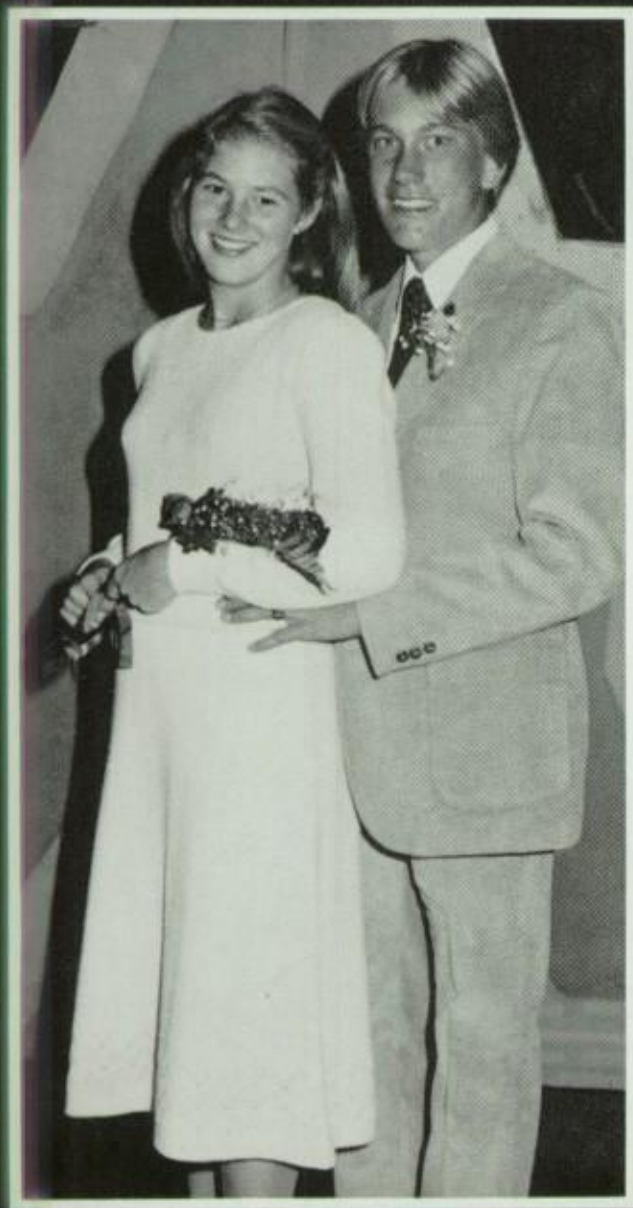
Homecoming Court 1981



Students at Spalding had a right to be proud of their Homecoming Court. The six lucky girls chosen were beautiful representatives of our school. The freshman attendant, Lisa Dubicki, was escorted by Chris Tallon. The sophomore attendant, Heidi Riecker, was escorted by Phil Fiddes to the game and by Jamie McLaughlin to the dance. The Junior attendant, Beth Shaw, was escorted by Kevin Valaika. There were two senior attendants. Karen Durham was escorted by Eddie George to the game and by Toby Block to the dance. Lisa Lamm was escorted by Jeff Polonus. Our beautiful 1981 Homecoming Queen, Mary Rakestraw, was escorted by Leland Hall.

Catch That Homecoming Spirit!

Balloons and beads, cakes and cowboys, suits and togas — these are what Homecoming Week is made of.

What is more fun than Homecoming Week?. Spirit days were a blast as the student body participated with relish. Many good times were experienced and the best of these was skits.

Skits this year were better than before. Sophomores took third place with their skit, a take-off of The Sword in the Stone. Juniors took second place with skit, a take-off of The Wizard Of Oz starring Amy Rakestraw. The senior skit, directed by Nancy Johnson and Mary Alice Boyle, won first prize. With its singing and dancing, the Senior skit stood out and Lisa Lamm and Harold Donnelly shone brightly in the take-off on Grease. Most of all, Homecoming should be fun. This year's definitely was!

Working Together For Us

School year 1981-1982 has once again shown students and faculty alike the concern and assistance of the AOL/SI administration. Education is not all that is offered, but a Christian way of life. Under the direction of Sr. Marcia Ann Daume, c.s.j. and Mr. Ed Bradle, our school has run smoothly and profitably as is traditional for the Irish.

Mr. Stoughton, Bishop O'Rourke, Sr. Marcia and Mr. Bradle accept award.

Irish Football:

The fighting Irish football teams have done it again! All three teams have had successful and explosive seasons with the outstanding efforts of players, coaches, managers, fans and parents. The varsity team had a record of 6-3. They finished second in the Mid-State 10.

Head Coach Tom Kahn commented on the season. "Our seniors played very well, displaying excellent leadership. We started slow, but, after the Richwoods game, we got better and better each game. They played outstanding defense against Washington and Limestone. We are at the top of the league in defense. Our seniors will leave with a winning season. They played to their potential." As for the fans, the coach feels the student body's support and conduct was fantastic. He is quoted saying, "It is the best student body in the conference, in the state, make that anywhere!"

Irish look determined.

The Irish Cross Country was very successful despite the strong dependence on underclassmen. The Irish began their season with a fifth place showing at the Canton Ivitational where 16 teams participated. In the dual meets, the Irish finished 6-6. Led by Juniors Dan Gray, Steve Lawless, and Kevin Potts and Senior Lee Folkens, the Irish defeated the Manual Rams midway through the season by one point. This was a significant upset in the conference.

Under the guidance of Coach Dave Hanula, the Irish went on to place sixth in the Mid-State 10 Conference Meet. In the IHSA Boys District Meet, Dan Gray placed third and Steve Lawless placed twelfth. They both advanced to the Sectionals in Freeport, Ill, placing 26th and 32nd respectively.

Flying to victory!

Regional Champs!!!

Although football is still the number one fall sport at Spalding, there is another, soccer, which is fast-rising in popularity. Started as a varsity sport only two years ago, Spalding's soccer team has figured prominently in Mid-State 10 competition. Under the leadership of Mike Wilson, assisted by Mike Buchner, the Irish started the season with a 3-3 tie to central, then went on to defeat the Bergan Trojans on Sept. 17. The Spalding — dominated game brought a 3-1 decision over the team who had formerly been undefeated in three years of conference play. Another tie with Bergan, and, finally, a 2-2 tie to Woodruff on Tues., Oct. 20, clinched the M.S. 10 conference championship for the Irish. In the final match of the conference season, the Irish lost to the Knights while plagued with injury, giving the Irish a season total of 8-1-3.

In Subsectional play, the Irish eliminated Richwoods with a 2-0 verdict. In sub-sectional finals on Saturday, Oct. 31, there was a rematch between the Irish and the Trojans. Ending the game in a 0-0 tie, they played two overtimes and two five-minute sudden deaths; Bergan won in a one-to-one shootout.

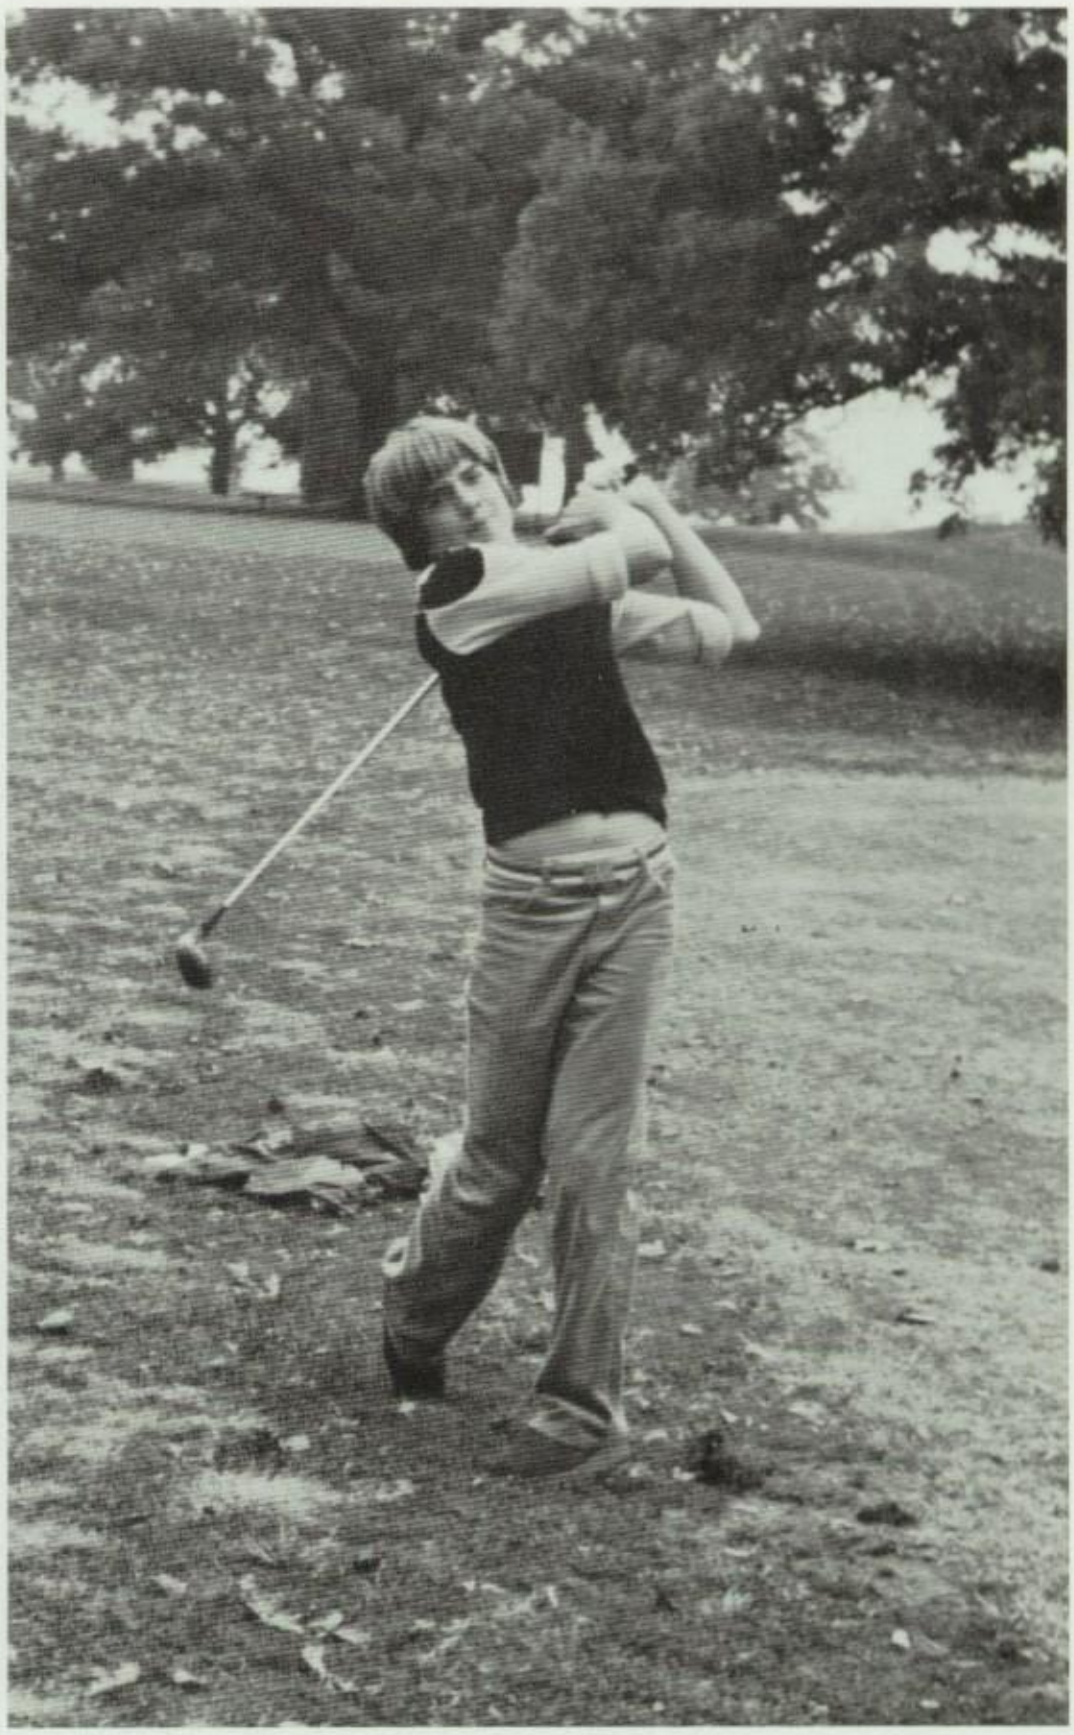
Go for it, Tom!



A look of determination.

Spalding's Golf team had a very successful and impressive season. With Tom Smith and Curt LeRoy as leading seniors, the team won many titles. Their conference record was 13-5 and their overall record was 18-7. They won fourth place in the Quincy Invitational Tournament. The team's first place finish in the conference tournament defied their second place conference standing. Steve Ferlmann won first place in individuals in the conference tournament. Tim Smith took third. They finished second in district, made sectionals, but missed going to state by six shots. Tim Smith had the low average. Steve Ferlmann had the most birdies. Patty Ehrhart won the Quincy Girls' invitational Tournament. Their fine season reflected Spalding's tradition in golf.

Volleyball Players

The 1981-'82 Volleyball team, led by Seniors Stephanie Venzon (Capt.), Sheila Widmer (Capt.), and Alicia Tanner, got off to a good non-conference start this year. As the season progressed the competition in the conference got tough. In post-season play, the Irish posted an important victory over Woodruff in regionals, but lost to Central in the Championship match. At the end of the season banquet, Stephanie Venzon was named most valuable player and Kari Olsen was most improved.

A Winning Season

The 1981-82 Girls' Tennis team had a winning season. The team consisted mainly of Juniors with only two Seniors: Jill Knight Captain, and Jane Schmitt. The team had great hope of going to state but was stopped short in semi-finals. The team is looking forward to next year's season as there will be many returning lettermen.

Kneeling: Susie Lawless, Ginny Van Buskirk, Patty Gibson, Ellen Palka, Nancy Knight, Jenny Caldwell, Ann Dougherty. Standing: Amy Donnelly, Theresa King, Jane Schmitt, Kim Kelly, Jill Knight, Beth Shaw, Beth Knight, Cindy Davis.

Foxy Female Irish Fish

In its third year, the Girls' Swim Team, coached by Sue LeMay, had a successful season with a record of 4-4. But more impressive was the Irish spirit that the girls expressed. They reflected an effort and strength known only to the Irish competitor. The Irish fish finished fourth in the Conference. And with the outstanding performances by the Freshmen, the girls' swim team looks hopeful for the future. The Freshman girls received the first place trophy at the Freshman Invitational Swim Meet at Woodruff.

The team was led by tri-captains Kim Folkens, Michelle Pilon (Seniors), and Susie Wittry (Junior). Most Valuable Swimmer went to Susie Wittry (who broke the record for 200-yard free-style and went to State) and most improved Swimmer went to Nicole Orr. The girls are preparing and looking forward to another successful season in 1982.

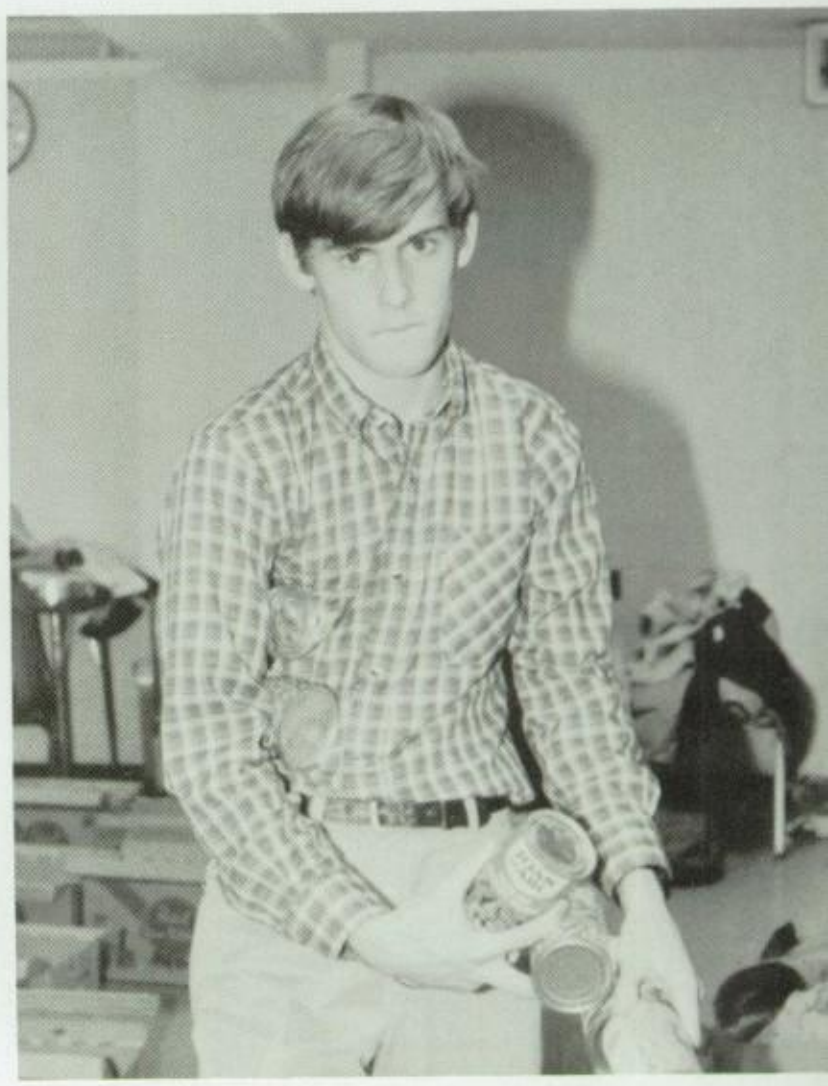
Bridget and Mark: What Hams!



I dropped a can on my foot!

This year's basket drive can be summed up in one word: success. Hard work was evident on the part of the Student Senate members who collected a record-breaking 260 baskets. Many long hours were contributed by these and other hard-working students who suffered cold nights to collect cans.

The collection for hams was run differently this year. The collectors from each class collected as a couple. The seniors were Bridget Callaway and Mark Hopkins. The juniors were Molly Goldin and Dee Tyree. The sophomores were Monica Menchaca and Pete Woodruff. The freshmen were Susie Zarley and Velea Sac. Competition was tough but the seniors came out on top.

Vice Versa:

The hard work of the Senior Board was evident to each couple who entered the YWCA Ballroom at Lakeview by the beautiful decorations. The ballroom was transformed into a rainbow wonderland, following the theme of "Under the Rainbow." As in the past years, a Vica Versa King and Court were elected. Couples enjoyed themselves dancing to the music of "Capers." All-in-all, the magical night of Vica Versa will not be soon forgotten.

Cheerleaders Lift Irish Spirits

The cheerleaders this year excelled in many areas. They practiced hard, starting early in the summer. Their practice paid off; they won first at camp. Individuals who placed were Stephanie Slaughter, Gina Venegoni, and Cathy Koetter.

Cheerleading involves dedication, self-sacrifice, and endurance. We are proud of this beautiful group of girls who choose to serve the school in their own way.

The 1981-82 Spalding Pom Pon Squad had quite a successful year leading the Irish Spirit at half-time activities of football and basketball. Under the direction of Miss Debbie Harrison and the leadership of captains Mary Rakestraw, Jennifer Steiner, and Kira Swardenski, the girls won a Sweepstakes Trophy for having the most first place routines, as well as spirit award everyday of their competition at Illinois State University. Seniors on the squad included the three captains, as well as Amy Bearce and Mary Kay Smith. In addition were fourteen juniors who brought the squad to nineteen girls.

Tumblers — Enjoyable Entertainment

The tumbling team consisted of a group of pretty and agile girls who never ceased to amaze the crowds with their stunts. The music to which they chose to perform was also a source of pleasure for the basketball fans. The long hard hours of practice were evident in their well-timed and precise routines. Senior members Susie Troy, Theresa Ringenberg, Sarah Bushell, Lisa Honegger, Lisa Couri, and, especially, Trish Vosberg will be missed greatly. Mrs. Kathy Murray, their moderator, and each girl deserves our congratulations and a thank-you for the entertainment with which they provided us.

An Impressive Season

The Spalding Irish Varsity Basketball team completed the 1981-82 season successfully with a 12-12 record. As the statistics would indicate, this was the best team the Irish have had in recent years. The team's accomplishments include victories over super-sectional champions Manual and Peoria Central, whom the Irish had not beaten in ten years, and an overtime game with the second ranked Chicago De La Salle in the Aurora Christmas Tournament. Also, because of the successful season, home game attendance was the best it has been since the state championship teams of the late 1960's.

Irish Fish Improve

The boys' swim team had a good season this year. The team's performance improved steadily. Pete Nauman led the team with strong races all year and qualified for state competition in the butterfly and individual medley. The most encouraging news was the Frosh-Soph swimmers who finished second in the conference and second in the Woodruff Freshman Invitation. Coach Pilat expects these successes to bolster next year's team. Three records were set this year in the Medley relay, the Breastroke, and the Individual Medley.

Varsity wrestlers were lead by two juniors this year. Steve L Kelly and Dan Van Buskirk were co-most valuable. Steve's rd was 17-5; Dan's record was 17-6. The most valuable sophomore was Brent Campbell with a record of 17-5. Bud s had a record of 18-5. The wrestlers were coached by Kevin Burk, Jerry McMahon, and Ray Guthrie.

Weightlifting Tournament

Spalding finished high in the fifth and final weightlifting meet. Coach McMahon worked hard to organize this event. His work is greatly appreciated.

Keri and Mary are tough Irish defenders.

The Irish season was one of hard work and determination. The team worked hard two hours a day for three months. Their hard work payed off by winning the Manual Holiday Tournament. They received first place out of sixteen teams and Mary Williams was named to the All Tournament Team.

Ending four years were co-captains Mary Rakestraw and Ann Schatsiek. Also, Cindy Noble helped the team tremendously. Adding to the team were juniors Rachel Dodge, Terri Olsen, Beth Shaw, and Wendy Campbell. Sophomore Mary Williams topped the team off with leading in rebounding and scoring. We would like to congratulate this years team on a great season.

Mary holds tight.

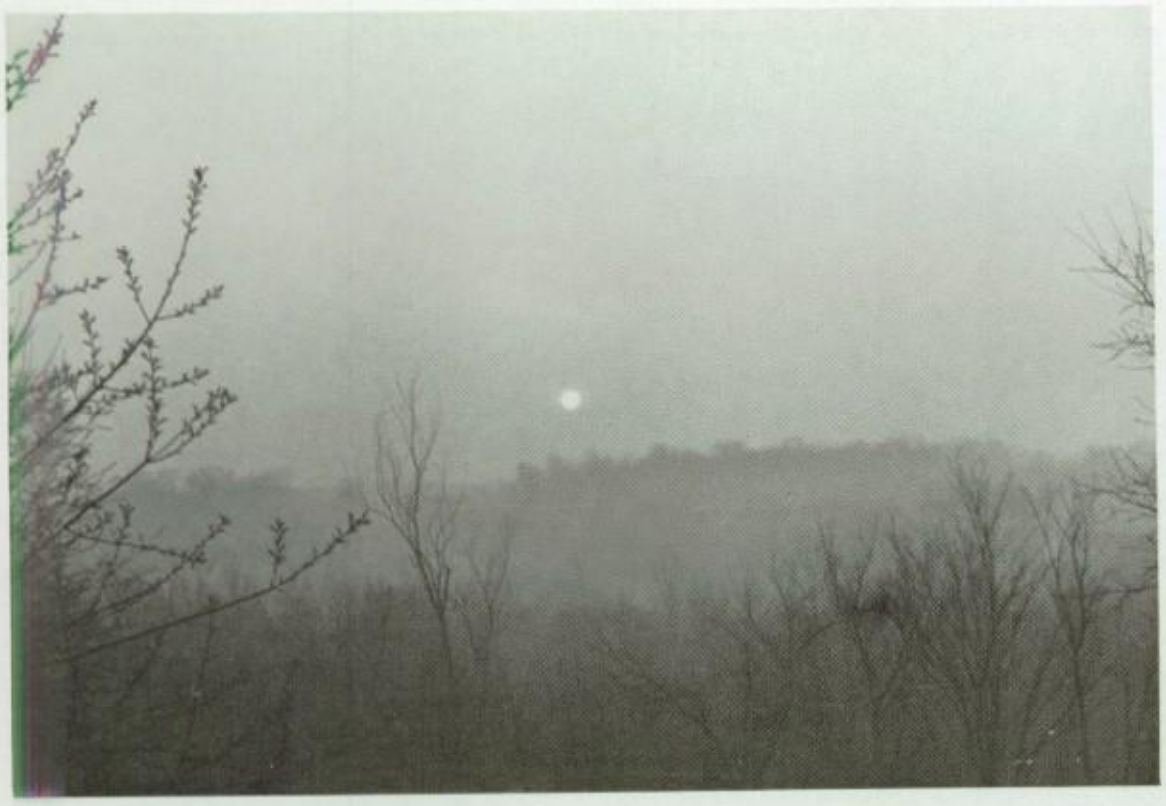
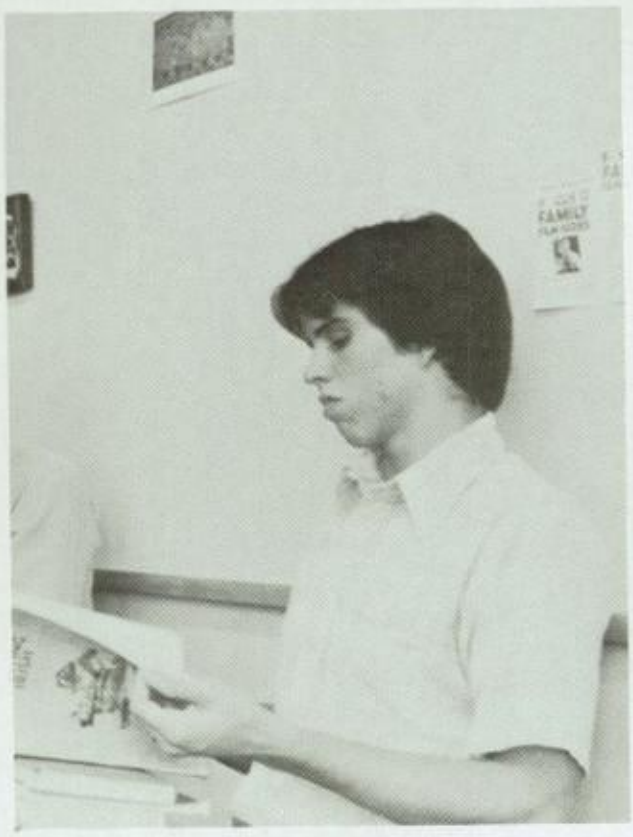
SPRING





Guys And Dolls Is A Success

This year's Spring Musical, Guys and Dolls, was a great success. Ellie Cahill, a senior, deserves to be congratulated for her excellent performance as Adelaide. Her talent was evident as she shone brightly on the stage. The other stars were: Joe Solomon as Nathan Detroit, Liz Delmastro as Sarah Brown, the mission "doll" and Jeff Warner as Sky Masterson. The whole cast did an outstanding job with the musical. It was enjoyed by all who were lucky enough to see it.

Adelaide and the Hot Box Girls form a chorus line.

Prom Is The "Best Of Times"

Prom this year was truly the "Best of Times." Held at the Redbud in Morton, couples enjoyed the refreshing atmosphere and the excellent music of Captain Strobe. Everyone who attended Prom appreciated the hard work of the Junior class board.

The biggest change for Student Senate this year was the Student Senate Homeroom. All Student Senate members, excluding freshmen members, had homeroom together with their wonderful moderator. This was good and bad. Senior members especially expressed the loss of their old homerooms. On the other hand, it provided the members with a chance to get to know each other better. Student Senate, this year as in all years previous, was active in various events and activities. These are the behind-the-scenes people who make things happen at AOL/SI.

The 1981-82 AOL/SI Key Club was involved in many service activities in the school and surrounding communities. The Key Club's main objective is to serve others. They did this by involvement in such activities as Walk for Mankind, Bingo, Spring Musical Dinner Theater, and Midstate Ten Music Festival just to mention a few. With the help of moderator Mrs. Taylor, they were kept busy most of the year. This year's Key Club was headed by Anne Seacrist, President; Joe Cheneler, Vice-president; and Tim Drew, Secretay-Treasurer.

Under the new direction of Mrs. Sharon Weiss, Spalding's National Honor Society experienced several changes. New members were nominated by the faculty instead of petitioning for themselves. As always, members were active in service around the school, their main service being tutoring. The highlight of National Honor Society's year was the ceremonial induction.

ETC Excels

The letters ETC stand for Educational Theater Company, but the title of this small but mighty organization gives no hint of its major accomplishments or the amount of service they provide to the school. Besides being involved in the fall play, See How They Run, and the spring musical, Guys and Dolls, the ETC helped with recruiting incoming freshmen, entered a float for competition in the Thanksgiving Day Parade, and attended the ISU Theater Festival. Their float, a take-off of last year's play, Winnie-the-Pooh, won a first place title for the parade. See How They Run won first place in state competition at the Theater Festival. It was a good year for ETC, to say the least!

Seniors at Spalding volunteer in many various agencies, but, unlike Bergan's Senior Service, it is not mandatory. Seventy-eight seniors chose this year to take part in community service every Tuesday and Thursday. These students left campus to visit their agencies. An agency could be anything from a day care center to an old folks' home. The agencies and the seniors enjoy the program made possible by the effort and hard work of Miss O'Flaherty. The pictures on this page were taken at the Salvation Army Day Care Center.

Carolyn contemplates a question.

The Scholastic Showdown team did very well this year in several tournaments. The purpose of the game is to obtain the most points by answering the most questions in the areas of history, current events, humanities, mathematics, sciences, sports, and many others. It was originally formed for the WRAU-Eureka College "Scholastic Showdown" televised tournament. The team progressed to the semifinals. They defeated Deer Creek-Mackinaw, Central Catholic, and Bergan to advance. Metamora beat them by a narrow margin in the semifinal game.

The team also entered other central Illinois scholastic bowl tournaments at Wenona, Minonk, Streator, Delavan, Mt. Pulaski, Roanoke, and others. They received first place in the consolation bracket at Streator and second place at Delavan.

Bob Lawless was this year's captain. He excelled in history, especially current history.

This year's team had a lot of fun as well as a beneficial learning experience.

Super Summa Staffers

Mary Alice Boyle, Editor

Karen McGann, Editor

No one could ever know the ups and downs of working on a yearbook, without experiencing them. There is a time when it seems you will never get done. As soon as one deadline is completed another one is staring you in the face. Work is endless, but the reward is great. This yearbook has been surprisingly on time, setting records over past years. There is a lot more to this book than simply the pictures you see and the words you read. Few people have contributed but they have poured their very selves into your Summa. Please appreciate their efforts to capture moments in time.

Mrs. Delicath our moderator, typed most of our copy.

Mr. Pilat, moderator

The work of the photographers and the boosters is essential to the yearbook. Without pictures and/or ads, a yearbook would simply not exist. We are grateful.

Irish Win Conference!!

Coach Dave Lang can be quoted as saying, "This is the best team in Spalding's history of baseball!" It is difficult to even consider doubting his words. These conference champions are looking forward to regionals. Summa regrets we cannot report the results. The team was led by captains Mark Hopkins and Joe Girardi plus Mark Myers, Harold Donnelly and Tye Elliott. Mark Myers led the conference in pitching and hitting. Coach Lang admits he will miss his seniors. The team can be proud of their 13-5 conference record.

Tennis Swings Into Action

This year's tennis team was led by junior, John Uhll, and sophomore, Gerard Palmeri. The only senior was Poncho Moreno, a foreign exchange student. The team placed first in the Morton Invitational Tournament out of eight teams. They also placed in the Pekin Invitational Tournament. The Mid-state 10 Frosh-Soph Tournament ended with Spalding in third. Varsity finished third in the district. The conference record was 11-5, overall 15-8.

Boys Make Tracks

The 1982 Track team was led by head coach Dan Plaag, distance coach Dave Hanula, and field events coach Ray Guthrie. Although the team finished ninth in the conference meet, they did experience many successes. Juniors Scott Slaughter, Steve Lawless, and Dan Gray qualified for the Journal Star Honor Roll Meet. This year was truly a year for building. Without any seniors, these thirty dedicated runners, pole vaulters, shot putters, and discus throwers showed their Irish spirit and sportmanship at every meet. Good luck to the team next year!

Girls Run For Fun

The track team as a whole did not do well; they finished eighth. Certain girls excelled: Heidi Pitlikk in the mile and two mile, Molly Morrissey and Molly Trau in the 200 yard dash, Criss Otten in hurdles and the high jump, Mary Rakestraw in the 400, and Cindy Noble in the shotput and discus. Cindy finished eighth in the district. Lisa Lamm and Mary Kakestraw were captains.

Softball Scores

This year's softball team had no seniors and only one returning starter, a junior named Jeanne Klein. The only Junior, lead the team hitting with over .400. Coach Schallau started at least five freshmen, sometimes eight. The team finished fourth out of eight in the Delavan Tournament. Softball is definitely looking toward the future.

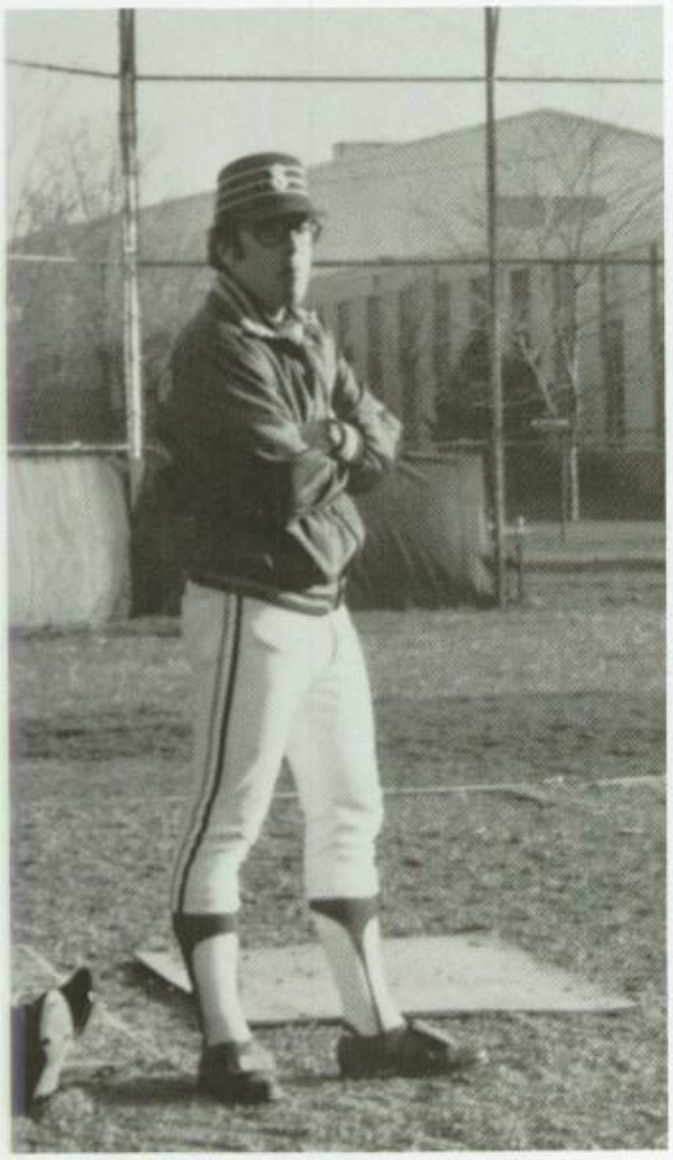
Coach Of The Year: Dave Lang

Summa has chosen Coach Dave Lang as the 1982 Coach of the Year. He coaches varsity baseball and the sophomore football. His support and dedication added to Spalding's Athletics is highly regarded. We are grateful and proud to name him Coach of the Year.



Athlete Of The Year: Joe Girardi

Besides being named Most Dedicated Male Athlete by the senior class, Joe Giradi has been chosen by the Summa as the Athlete of the Year. He Obviously excelled as quarterback for the football team. His dedication to baseball was evident as the catcher. He also was involved in interamurals and played basketball freshmen year. Congratulations to Joe Girardi for being an outstanding athlete.

Summa wishes to give Mark Myers honorable mention as an outstanding athlete.

Man Of The Year: Phil LeDoux

Phil LeDoux received the highest honor given to a senior boy. The class of 1982 voted him as their Spalding Man of the year because of his spirit, decication, and service to the school and the community. Phil was on the honor roll all four years and National Honor Society his junior and senior years. He served the community through the Red Cross Club and SPEC. He served the school through photography club, homecoming skits, pep band, and French club. His dedication was evident when he played basketball all four years and ran track for two years. His personality made him liked by all and a perfect candidate for the 1982 Spalding Man of the Year.

1982 Graduation

May 21 was a very special day for the class of 1982. It started with a Baccalaureate Mass held at 10:30 AM at St. Mary's Cathedral. The Baccalaureate, given by Fr. Beebe was highlighted by a symbolic offetory and a liturgical dance. The dancers were Jennifer Steiner, Gina Venegoni, Cathie Koetter, and Kathy Dwyer.

A brunch followed at the Civic Center. There the graduates, their families, and the faculty enjoyed the opportunity of listening to the addresses of the Valedictorian, Carolyn Beyers, and the Salutatorian, Frank Boley.

Commencement exercises were held at the gym where the diplomas were distributed by the bishop to the class of 1982. The address was given by Fr. Thomas Henseler, the director of Cursillo and the Permanent Deaconate.

We Look Forward To Summer . . .

For each of us, summer means leaving school behind.

For some, summer means summer league baseball.

Others value their time spent outdoors.

Summer is a golden time for us, mainly because we are freed from school and all it involves. Our freedom is enjoyed as individuals, so, naturally, each of us has our own way of celebrating freedom. Summer can mean sun and fun or dedicated work at a summer job. Regardless of how we spend our time, summer is a time to appreciate.

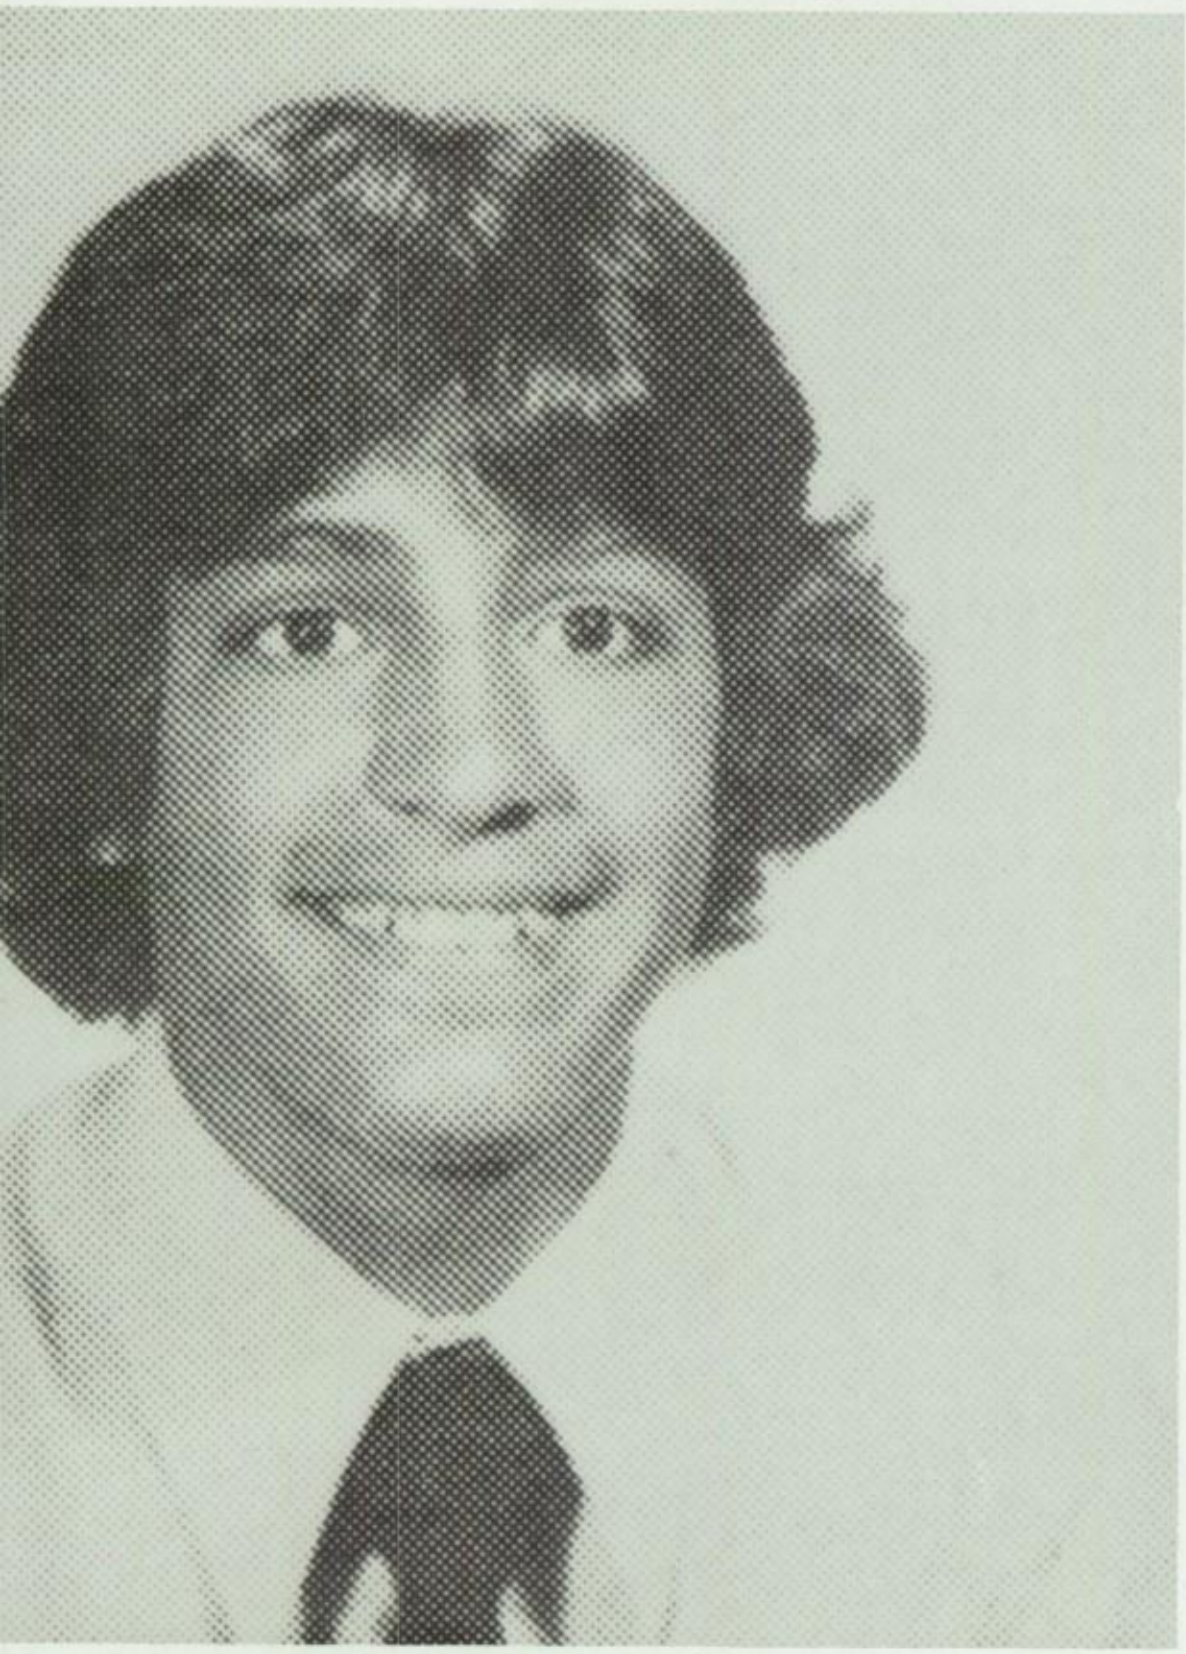
In Memory Of Mike Sherer



We realize the loss the class of 1982 suffered when we lost our friend, Mike Sherer. In fact, the whole school lost with his tragic death on June 14, 1979. We have all missed his friendly smile and happy laugh. It seems unfair to think of our last three years as being without Mike, because in actuality, his spirit has been right there beside us the whole time. We will always love him and we will never forget him.

We would like to dedicate this Summa, our highest, to Mike. All of our many hours of work we offer in his memory.

A Step Further

Another step has been taken in our lives; the year is over. Much time has passed, even though it seems like just a moment or two. How can it be that it is over? Weren't we writing Homecoming skits yesterday?

Wait a minute. There were many moments to be remembered since Homecoming. Each of us has those times. Think back on your favorite class (or your worst), your funniest moment (there had to be quite a few), your craziest night out, that goal you worked for — be it a play, a swimming time, winning a game, placing in a competition, making money on a fundraiser, finishing that yearbook, finishing that year — how it seemed like you would never reach your goal. Then, remember the exhilaration the moment you did. Keep that smile on your face.

Time it was
And what a time it was,
It was
A time of innocence,
A time of confidences.
Long ago — it must be,
I have a photograph.
Perserve your memories,
They're what's left you.

A Step Further

There was a time when we couldn't see to the end of this year. We couldn't wait for it to get here. High School seemed at once endless and useless. Now the end is here. It doesn't seem possible.

We look ahead to the future enthusiastically; there will be more good times. We look back on this school year reluctantly; we don't want to leave the good times. Here, in your Summa, we have attempted to preserve memories. We have tried to achieve the impossible: create frozen moments of time. Please use this book to remember.

Mary Alice Boyle and Karen McGann, Editors

Although our moments will be close to never,
And the miles between us will grow,
I'll always remember the fun we've shared,
And the you I've come to know.

Times we've hugged, argued, laughed, and cared,
I should have realized from the start . . .
How much I'll really miss you,
When in our future we drift apart.
